FULL BIO:

Shayla Hilton has been in the field of education for over 14 years. From a very early age, she always knew that she wanted to be a teacher. Shayla began her teaching career in the elementary school and within the first few years, she realized that her contributions, to the field of education, could reach far beyond the classroom walls. Shayla truly values education and considers herself to be a life-long learner. She has acquired a B.S. in Elementary Education from North Carolina Agricultural & Technical State University, M.Ed. in Elementary Education from Elon University, and M.Ed. in Educational Leadership from High Point University. In addition, Shayla is currently completing her Ed.D in Christian Leadership from Liberty University.

Shayla believes that God has a purpose for everyone, and each person has an assignment to fulfill in the earth. She feels that her personal assignment includes educating, coaching, and training women who are ready to get unstuck and rebuild the broken areas of their lives. Shayla has a passion for wellness and believes that it is a foundational principle for success. She loves to educate women on how their spiritual, mental, emotional, and physical wellness all work together as building blocks for the life they desire to create.
